An illustration of a character with brown skin and yellow eyes, wearing a bright yellow safety vest over a blue shirt. They are standing on a rooftop, looking up at a white wind turbine with a teal hub. In the background, there are stylized grey city buildings under a light blue sky with white wavy lines representing wind. To the right, there are some green plants in pots and a small grey robot-like figure.

Back on the roof, the wind blew hush, then whoosh around the bend.
